

2024

COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE CONFERENCE

30 OCTOBER 2024

10am - 5pm AEDT

ONLINE

LINK EMAILED TO REGISTERED
PARTICIPANTS

10AM

Welcome, Acknowledgement of Country

The Acknowledgement will be delivered by Dr Stacey McMullen (University of Newcastle), a proud Aboriginal woman who is a descendent of the Kooma people of the St George region in Queensland. She grew up on Awabakal country.

10.20AM

Plenary

Made to measure? A how-to guide to benchmarking

Acting APAC Accreditation Manager Stephanie Korilis in conversation with AAC member Professor Linda Byrne and APAC Assessor Professor Julie Ann Pooley

11.20AM

Break

11.40AM

Concurrent sessions

Let's go team: making inter-professional learning work

With Associate Professor Rosanna Rooney, Curtin University; Dr Judy Pickard, University of Wollongong; and Assistant Professor Cher McGillivray, Bond University

Be honest: what makes a good site visit

With Professor David Neumann, Griffith University; Professor Lisa Phillips, University of Melbourne; and Professor Lorelle Burton, University of Southern Queensland

Beyond a reasonable doubt: what constitutes useful evidence?

With APAC Assessor Professor Mark Wiggins, Macquarie University, and AAC member Professor Jon Mason

12.40PM

Lunch

1.30PM

Keynote speaker:

Professor Pat Dudgeon on Decolonising Psychology

With UWA colleagues Belle Selkirk and Dr Joanna Alexi

2.30PM

Break

2.40PM

Insights from leaders in the sector

Rachel Phillips (PsyBA); Dr Catriona Davis McCabe and Dr Zena Burgess (APS); and Professor Phil Kavanagh (HODSPA).

3.40PM

Break

3.45PM

Concurrent sessions

The pleasures and perils of AI

With Associate Professor Guy Curtis, UWA, and Dr Erika Penney, UTS

Cultural responsiveness: some innovative approaches

With Anita McGregor, UNSW Sydney, and Professor Ian Kneebone, UTS

More than a footnote: what makes a substantial research project?

With APAC Director and AAC Chair, Associate Professor Melissa Davis

4.45PM

Concluding remarks and thanks

5PM

Close