

APAC Board Communiqué

March 2025

The APAC Board met on 24 March 2025 in-person. Our post-Board Communiqué is designed to give stakeholders a greater insight into the workings of APAC Board meetings.

Accreditation Business

The Board noted that the Assessment Accreditation Committee (AAC) and the CEO had made determinations under powers delegated to them by the Board. All determinations are reported to the Psychology Board of Australia (PsyBA), which will then decide whether to approve each program for the purpose of registration.

Other Business

The Board was updated on APAC accreditation matters from the Accreditation Assessment Committee (AAC) and received updates on APAC's the risk-based framework. Other key items considered by the Board included:

- Progress updates on the Alignment Accreditation Standards Review project which will align Accreditation Standards with the Psychology Board of Australia's Code of Conduct and Professional Competencies.
- Scoping development of an APAC organisational intelligence function to present independently derived information and sector trends.
- Reviewing APAC's Stakeholder Reference Group (SRG).
- Briefing on APAC's Annual Stakeholder Survey report and ongoing Communications plan.

The Board also agreed parameters for the upcoming APAC Board Strategy Planning Day which will take place on Monday 7 April in Melbourne.
