Other Business

The Board endorsed the five-year APAC Strategy (2024 - 2029) and related Operational Plan following approval of APAC's funding model and fee schedules by the Psychology Board of Australia (PsyBA). The Board also reviewed the outputs from its Strategy Day held on 7 April 2025 focused on APAC's role, financial sustainability and performance measurement. Other key items considered by the Board included:

- Updates on the Alignment Accreditation Standards Review project with public consultation and direct engagement with key stakeholders in progress.
- Updates on the APAC Risk Profile to reflect an increased focus on change management as new systems and platforms are being developed and implemented to drive efficiency.
- The continuing recruitment and development of key staff to support accreditation assessments.

The Board also agreed parameters for the upcoming APAC Board which will take place on Monday 21 July in Melbourne.
